COL. TAYLOR'S ESCAPE.

State troops were last night encamped in the Reelfoot Lake region in Tennessee, where for months a state of terror has existed on account of various acts committed by night riders. Gov. Patterson who was in Union City yesterday, will keep the soldiers in the field until order is restored and the fullest investigation is made regarding the assassination of Capt. Rankin on Monday night.

Gov. Patterson expresses the determination to break up lawlessness by night riders. Col. Taylor who made his escape from night riders Monday night, has made the following statement:

"Monday night last, Capt Rankin and I went to Reelfoot Lake in response to a letter from Mr. Carpenter, of Union City, who wanted to lease some timber lands. On our arrival at the lake we went to the Ward Hotel, and early after supper retired. Some time during the night we were aroused by some one knocking at our door, and on opening the door a mob of masked men were found standing in the hall. We were ordered to dress, and as the leader of the mob said he wanted to talk with us, we put on our clothes and accompanied the men to the back of the lake some distance from the hotel.

"The leader of the mob talked with us, telling us we were associating too much with Judge Harris and were taking entirely too much interest in the lake. He said that the course of Harris and the West Tennessee Land Company in prohibiting free fishing was causing the starvation of women and children, said that something had to be done.

"I never dreamed that the mob intended us any harm, but just then the mob threw a rope around Capt. Rankin's neck and swung him to a limb. He protested and said, 'Gentlemen, do not kill me,' and the reply of the mob was a volley of 59 shots.

"This was the first evidence of any intention to harm us, and when the firing began I jumped into a bayou and made for a sunken log. Behind this I hid, and the mob fired several hundred shots into the log. They evidently believed I was dead, for I heard one of them say, 'He's dead, and let him go,' and with that he rode away."

"ICE FOOLS."

An endless chain of hired pawns, some girls and boys, others old men, and none receiving a salary of more than $25 a week, were the chief factors in Charles W. Morse's weird scheme for deluding the investing public with his "ice pools," according to testimony introduced in New York yesterday in the trial of the deposed financier and his associate, Alfred H. Curtis, in the U. S. Circuit Court. The story of the collapse is nearing a climax. When it is explained how the Morse coup failed in "kiting ice" to 110 points, the public will know just why the National Bank of North America failed and the subsequent panic dropped like a pall over the entire country.

Austin, president of the Eastern Steamship Company, yesterday stated that Morse had got a note for $100,000 from him and discounted it without his knowledge.

RACE RIOT FEARED.

As a result of the lynching of a negro named George Stover, for attempted attack on Miss White, daughter of a prominent citizen of Decatur, Ala., the negroes are arming and there is fear of a race riot. The lynching occurred at Hartselle, near Decatur, and the sheriff with a strong posse has gone there to prevent a racial outbreak. Stover entered Miss White's room Monday and attempted to attack her. The girl was awakened by the negro, and her screams caused him to flee. Stover was caught by officers and taken before Miss White, but she was in such a nervous condition that she could not identify him. As the officers were taking the negro to Decatur jail they were attacked by fifty men, who took the negro and shot him to death in the street.

The negroes say that Stover was not the man who attacked Miss White.

Do not let anyone tell you that something else is just as good as DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills because there isn't anything just as good. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

SALT A LUXURY.

Common table salt may become a luxury, as a result of the great forest fires that raged last week in northern Michigan, according to Charles M. Mulkey of Detroit, member of a large salt company that operates in the devastated region. Mulkey says all the wood and sawdust used by salt companies as fuel in producing salt was burned up. To import coal is out of the question, and he fears the salt output will be reduced to such a point that a stiff advance in prices must follow.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

THURSDAY EVENING, OCT. 22, 1908.

THE alarm upon the part of the republicans at the probable outcome of the November election, now but ten days off, becomes more and more apparent each day. Taft is hustling day and night and Sunday too, never allowing an opportunity to pass without throwing bouquets at himself, in pressing, or trying to, the idea that the country needs saving, and that he is the only one that can save it. Every member of the Cabinet, the vice president, the speaker of the House, every republican senator and representative, even the officials of the customs service, ordered from the four quarters of the globe, and an army of small fry orators are now on the stump, all of whom are under the direction of the master politician—occupant of the White House, who, notwithstanding his well known propensity for bluster and bragadocia, realizes in the words of the song, "They are after me." Scared indeed is the whole tribe, for it is known that most all the northern newspapers (including those of Washington and Baltimore) which are owned and edited by republicans, receive from their correspondents in the different States, news of a character that even after being subjected to the blue pencil process, shows the ear marks of apprehension. Last week some of these observant newspaper correspondents met in New York city and compared notes and agreed that things were not as they expected to find them, and, by implication, not what the newspapers they represented wanted. While they were reckoding among themselves and giving their impressions of their observations, one of them, a western man, said:

I am afraid to write what I sometimes think, because it seems preposterous, impossible. My own judgment tells me it cannot be so. My friends, after election, would say that I must have had a temporary obsession, and perhaps I am losing my mind. But does it not strike you boys that there a great many ominous features in the drift of this campaign, from the viewpoint of the party in power?

And they admitted that there were. At the same time they agreed with him that after all they must be wrong.

"Ominous" for the party in power! The party in power may be able to buy the election—a short time will tell.—No other way is now open to them, and that they will resort to this, if the goods are for sale, goes without saying.

THERE ARE still many people in the world who are averse to vaccination. Delegates representing every state in the union assembled in Philadelphia this week to perfect a national organization to oppose all forms of compulsory medical practice, chiefly compulsory vaccination. It is alleged by some that vaccination causes more disease than it prevents, and that all compulsory medical practice is oppresive, if not actually unconstitutional. A long list of fatalities charged against vaccination will be presented to the convention. An official bulletin published by the Pennsylvania Anti-Vaccination League says:

In Philadelphia during the ten years immediately preceding the enforcment of the vaccination school laws, from 1885 to 1894, there were 113 deaths from smallpox while during the four years from 1901 to 1904, when the compulsory vaccination law was being most rigidly enforced, there died in the Municipal Hospital of smallpox 76 persons. In Marietta, where vaccine is manufactured from the virtus of smallpox, there were more than fifty cases in 1905; but in Erie, where it has been found impossible to enforce the compulsory vaccination law, there has been only one death from smallpox in twenty-five years. In Waynesboro, where the entire population is opposed to vaccination, there has not been a case of smallpox since the civil war, nor a death from that disease in sixty-four years.

AS STATED yesterday Congress will be asked to make an appropriation of $35,000,000 for carrying on the work on the isthmian canal during the fiscal year 1910. The current year's appropriation ageregates $27,000,000. The 1910 estimates make provision for about seven months' work on the three locks at Gatun. When this canal is finished, if it ever will be, the cost will be found to be many fold the original estimate. Waste and extravagance characterize the work on the Panama canal.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Oct. 22.

Friends in this city of Miss Ada Gorman, whose marriage to Charles Joseph Magness, alias Hartlove, a navy deserter, has recently come to light through the man's arrest at Louisville, Ky., today tells the story of her infatuation for him and the progress of their romance. Magness, it is said, first became acquainted with Miss Gorman at the Vermont Avenue Christian Church, where for a time he sang in a volunteer choir organized by the daughter of the dead Maryland senator. Members of the church, ascertaining that the past reputation of the man was anything but savory, went so far as to remonstrate with Miss Gorman, when his intimacy with her became so pronounced, but were overruled by her declaration that even though the stories of his vicissitudes were correct, she would be loyal to him and effect his reformation. Later the pastor of Miss Gorman's church was asked to officiate at the wedding, which was set for this fall. Early in September, when a few friends sent wedding presents to the Washington home of the young woman, they were astonished to learn that she was out of the city. Up until the news of her husband's arrest at Louisville they had no further news of the couple. Magness was born of humble parents in Baltimore in 1885. At the age of seven he was sent to St. Mary's Industrial school, it is alleged, for incorrigibility. Here he learned to play the clarionet. At seventeen, he was paroled from the school, and began work in a sweat shop in Baltimore. Georgiana Kappler, a seamstress of Baltimore, today declares that Magness became engaged to her last January, and says he jilted her for Miss Gorman. On January 21, 1907, he enlisted in the navy at Philadelphia. The police of the Monumental City declare that this was to escape arrest from the civil authorities on a warrant charging manipulation of funds. After a few months service, he became a cornetist in the band on board the Dolphin, stationed at Washington. Soon after Miss Gorman became interested in the man, it is said that he suddenly exhibited an affluence not in accord with his meager pay, and bought elaborate clothes. It is even alleged that he boasted to girls of his acquaintance that he had a goodly source of revenue. Early last June, hearing Magness express distaste of his navy life, Miss Gorman is alleged to have given him $400 with which to purchase his discharge. This money, his associates here declare, was probably squandered on jewelry, clothes, and for the entertainment of his friends. At several times during the summer Magness spent several days at a time at Laurel, where the summer home of the Gorman's is located. Here he posed as a model youth, played with the local band, went to church religiously and assiduously attended Miss Gorman. On June 15, the Dolphin left Washington, with Magness on board. On arrival of the vessel at Newport, Magness obtained shore leave. On July 5 he was declared a deserter, having failed to report at the expiration of his time. Since that date the police of all the leading cities have been on his trail.

If his business will permit Secretary Metcalf will go to Quincy, Mass., on November 10, to witness the launching of the battleship North Daxota. This is the first of the 20,000 ton ships of the Dreadnought type being built for the navy.

Two hundred members attending the convention here of the superintendents of railway buildings and bridges, were received by the president at the White House today.

Will Answer President's Letter.

Point Pleasant, W. Va., Oct. 22.—When shown President Roosevelt's letter to Senator Knox today, assailing Bryan's labor views and declaring that he had failed to take the public into his confidence regarding his belief's on the injunction question, the candidate declared if the president really desired the information all he had to do was to read the speech on labor which he delivered in Chicago on Labor Day and repeated many times since. Bryan will however, reply at length to the Roosevelt letter later on, as he believes personally that the more prominence that is given the president in the campaign the better it will be for the democratic cause. The democratic candidate will make twenty speeches in West Virginia today and he leaves early tomorrow for New Jersey and New York. Bryan took occasion today to declare there is no doubt in his mind that he will carry Ohio by a large majority.

Anthony Comstock Ill.

New York, Oct. 22.—Suffering intensely from gall stones, Anthony Comstock, president of the New York Society for the suppression of vice, is so ill today at his home at Summit, N. J., that a council of physicians has been called to decide whether or not his strength will permit an operation.

News of the Day.

Mistaking morphine for calomel, a drug clerk is declared to have poisoned a daughter of George H. Cresson, of Lake Forest, near Raleigh, N. C.

Belief that many of the forest fires now raging in New York state are the work of incendiaries caused the commissioner of the forest, fish and game department to start a crusade yesterday for the punishment of the culprits.

Bringing back the daughter of Prof. Egan, the United States Minister to Denmark, as his bride, Elmer Murphy, a Washington representative of the United Press, arrived at New York yesterday from Copenhagen.

Attorney-General Wade H. Ellis, of Ohio, yesterday held that the maintenance of separate schools for negro pupils is illegal and brings out that such a violation exists in Huron county. The opinion holds that the denial to colored children of equal rights in a graded school established for white children is unlawful.

Two funerals in Greenville, S. C., yesterday evening rang down the curtain on a double tragedy which cost the lives of two leading citizens, A. B. Kettrell and C. F. White. Both men were drinking when White attacked Kittrell, shooting him twice. Kittrell then got the gun and fired two bullets into White's body. Both died within a few hours.

Convinced, despite the diagnosis of physicians, that she had typhoid fever, Marie Moriere, a French maid, yesterday leaped to her death from the sixth floor of Hague Court, a fashionable apartment house on the upper west side in New York. Her skull was crushed on the asphalt paving of the court and she died instantly.

Agents of European noblemen seeking prospective wives will probably be barred from Chicago. An ordinance is being considered by the council judiciary committee, which provides that any person convicted of aiding, encouraging or negotiating for a consideration the acquaintanceship between a man and woman for the purpose of matrimony shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punished by a fine of not less than $200 for each offense.

Charles Joseph Magness, alias J. C. Hartlove, is in the Jefferson county, Ky., jail charged with being a deserter from the navy. He married Miss Ada Gorman, second daughter of the late Senator Arthur Pue Gorman, in Louisville, on September 5. When arrested Magness had about $6,000 in cash and eighteen $1,000 government bonds on his person. This money he obtained from his wife. He said that she was left $100,000 in money in addition to some property from her father's estate. Magness admitted he was a deserter.

President Roosevelt in an open letter to Senator Knox, of Pennsylvania, attacks President Gompers' proposed labor measure, declaring it to be despotic legislation. He demands that Mr. Bryan state whether he is committed to Gompers' labor legislation programme, and points to the Pearre bill as a dangerous invasion of property rights. The letter deals at great length with the labor plank in the democratic platform and with the campaign utterances of Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor.

Unconfirmed reports were received in Muskogee, Oklahoma yesterday evening that fifty or more lives were lost in the cloudburst west of Shawnee yesterday. As all telegraph and telephone communication has been interrupted, it is impossible to verify the rumors. A cloudburst early yesterday between McLoud and Benson Park, Oklahoma, raised all the small streams in the locality higher than ever was known, and washed out the Rock Island tracks between those points and destroyed much property in the lowlands and along the Canadian river. About 100 Shawnee and Pottawatomie Indians are missing.

Speaker Cannon.

Peoria, Ill., Oct 22.—Speaker Cannon is the storm center of the convention of the Illinois Federation of Labor today. The skirmish to keep the resolution attacking him from coming before the delegates has increased the bitterness. A strenuous effort to kill the resolution has failed.

Chairman Farrington of the resolutions committee declared that if the Cannon resolution was not submitted in the regular report it would be incorporated in a minority report which he would submit himself. He is backed by John A. Walker, of Danville, Cannon's home, president of the Illinois Mine Workers, who has appointed five men to work against Cannon in his district.

Today's Telegraphic News

The Fleet in Japan.

Tokio, Oct. 22.—Between 3,000 and 4,000 U. S. sailors came from Yokohama today to attend the garden party in Hibiya Park, in which Mayor Ozaki was the host. The affair almost equalled in brilliancy the reception to the officers in the imperial gardens.

While the Hibiya Park festivities were being held, the officers of the fleet were being entertained by the mayor and Prince Shimadaza at luncheon. Later the officers attended a garden party at the British embassy.

Sixteen thousand business men joined in a great lantern procession tonight, the route of which presented a fairy-like appearance. Nearly all of Tokio turned out for this event. The business men were also the backers of a big theatrical production this afternoon. Dramatic entertainments were given tonight on the Japanese mail steamers Coya and Archaic.

Admiral Sperry and the other admiral, will leave for Yokohama tomorrow, following a final day of receptions and dinners. The fleet will sail Saturday.

San Francisco, Oct. 22.—While Tokio and Yokohama lavishing millions in their reception to the American fleet the business men of Japan are driven to desperation by a financial depression, declared first Officer Orthland, of the German steamer Nicomada, which arrived here today.

"The streets of Japan," says Orthland, are the scenes of constant rioting by the unemployed, and with business at a standstill, the country is confronting a most serious problem."

Little Girl Killed.

New York, Oct. 22.—When John M. Meade, a street railway man, and his family were dispossessed for failure to pay rent, they found refuge with the mother of Mrs. Meade and applied to the charity organization society for help. There were seven in the family. They got ten cents. When the mother with the pittance arrived home little Margaret, three years old, was crying with hunger and Marion entrusted with the dime was sent out to buy milk to still the baby's cries. Humming a little poem, "Keep on running, little brook," which she was to recite in school today, Marion hurrying home with the milk was run down and killed by a car as she crossed Third avenue. When a crowd, from which the motorman and conductor were barely saved by the police, heaved the car off the little mangled body the nickle left after buying the milk was still clutched in her hand.

Automobile Dynamited.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—That dynamiters are trying to curb the automobile speed mania is a theory of the police, who early today left for Hawthrone a suburb in an endeavor to solve the mystery of the strangest accident Chicago has ever known. Last night a big red car was blown to atoms. In it, it is said, three men were sitting. No trace of the men could be found in the darkness. The only clew to the identity of the machine and its occupants was its license tag which is registered in the name of George Getz, a millionaire. Getz has four machines. The one bearing the number corresponding to the tag found was kept at the garage of the Chicago Automobile Club. According to club attaches, Getz was at the club last evening. He has not yet returned to his home or been seen at his other clubs, so far as the police can learn.

Black Hand Reign of Terror.

New York, Oct. 22.—Because of a "Black Hand" reign of terror which for months has held the Italian community of the eastside in fear, police guards today are doubled throughout the district following an attempt to blow up a tenement in east 11th street. Pasquale Discardi, owner of the wrecked house, where live 18 families, has been getting Black Hand threats for months. Police and detectives have patrolled the block in which his property is located incessantly and a score were in the vicinity when last night a bomb blew out the stairs of the building. In the same block three houses owned by Salvatore Spinelli have been wrecked by the Black Hand, and murders, incendiary fires and kidnappings have been frequent.

King and Queen in Barcelona.

Barcelona, Oct. 22.—King Alfonso and Queen Victoria, accompanied by Premier Maura, arrived in Barcelona today for a five days' stay. Barcelona is the hot bed of Spanish anarchy. The royal apartments are under a constant guard, and every time the king appears in public he is surrounded by soldiers. All known anarchists are under close surveillance. Alfonso himself is opposed to the extreme cautions taken, and if he had his way would mingle with the people freely, but the Spanish cabinet will not permit this.

Says She Was Jilted.

Baltimore, Oct. 22.—The most important local feature in connection with the Magness-Gorman wedding, and the one gossip here today is the charge of Miss Georgianna Kappler, the pretty young shirt factory foreman, that Magness jilted her for the hand of the daughter of the late United States Senator, A. P. Gorman. Miss Kapper says: "Mr. Magness and I had been engaged since last January and he treated me in a most shameful manner." State Senator Arthur P. Gorman refuses to discuss the matter.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 22.—Mrs. Charles Magness visited the jail today to see her youthful husband, who is waiting to go to Philadelphia, where he will stand trial as a deserter from the United States navy. Mrs. Magness refused to say whether she knew her husband was a deserter from the navy when she married him. She says, however, that she will go to Philadelphia and will stand by him through his troubles and will use her fortune in his behalf.

IN OLDEN TIMES

People Were Content To Take Things Easier Than Now.

If our forefathers could behold the modern locomotives, automobiles and electric cars, they would hold up their hands in astonishment.

The stage-coach was fast enough then—people were more content to take things easy.

They used to be satisfied with any sort of a hair lotion that came along—if it did not prevent Baldness they thought it was because Baldness could not be prevented.

It's different now. People know that germs cause Baldness and that Newbro's Herpicide kills the germ, thus curing Dandruff and preventing Baldness.

Sold by Ernest L. Allen & Co., agents. Two sizes 50c and $1.00. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. 10 9

Balkan Troubles.

Constantinople, Oct. 22.—The negotiations between Austria and Turkey over the Balkan dispute became deadlocked today by Austria's insistance that her annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina be considered as accomplished and not made a subject for discussion by the proposed international conference. The hitch in the proceedings was wholly unexpected, as Turkey had indicated that she would accept the inevitable. While the situation is momentarily threatening, the diplomatic corps believes that Turkey will recede. Her contention is in reality a technicality, as she will willingly recognize Austria's annexation provided the powers agree to it.

Vienna, Oct. 22.—The government today issued an order prohibiting the shipment through Austria-Hungary of war material intended either for Servia of Montenegro.

London, Oct. 22.—That actual warfare between 120,000 Austrian troops and the insurrectionists in Bosnia and Herzegovina has been in progress for ten days was the information brought to London today by a Montengrin agent, who is here to investigate the course that England will pursue in case Servia and Montenegro declare war against Austria. This agent declares that guerilla warfare has been raging in the mountains since Austria's stroke early in the month and the situation is so dangerous that Austria is now rushing reinforcements to her provincial armies Scores of persons have been killed. A state of siege was declared by Austria ten days ago. The detention of envoy Vukotich by Austrian authorities Agram Tuesday, the agents declare, was merely a pretext, in order to search the envoy. For this reason the apology offered by Austria is not acceptable to Montenegro.

Cettinje, Montenegro, Oct. 22.—Led by the two daughters of Prince Nicholas, Princesses Xenia and Vera, a monster anti-Austrian demonstration was held on the streets here today. The princesses headed the procession and pleaded with the populace to take arms in the defense of the principality. After the crowd dispersed, the princesses organized a red cross corps and announced that they would themselves go to the front if war is declared.

Explosion at Nitro-glycerene Plant.

Pittsburg, Oct. 22.—Forest fires which have been raging for days in the vicinity of Shannopin, near here, communicated with the nitro-glycerine plant at that place shortly before noon today, causing an explosion which blew up one of the magazines, wiping out every vestige of the building. The second and remaining magazine, 500 feet from the first, is momentarily expected to blow up, as the fire is quickly spreading in that direction. The residents of the town are helpless. The flames are now almost within striking distance of their home, but they fear to remain in the vicinity, as the fire is only several hundred feet away from the larger magazine, in which 400 gallons of nitroglycering are known to be stored. No casualties have yet been reported.

Later—The second magazine has just blown up.

Following the explosion of the second magazine firemen, aided by two hundred volunteers extinguished the flames which threatened to destroy the residential section of the town. Every window in the big plant of the American bridge works directly across the river was shattered.

While the forest fires are raging fiercely on the hills surrounding Shannopin, it is now believed all immediate danger is past.

Sees Husband Drown in a Vision.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 22.—In a vision, in which she says it seemed as though she was viewing actual happenings, Mrs. Lottie Johnson, of Beachmont, at midnight Tuesday saw her husband, George Johnson, clinging to an overturned boat in midocean, heard him cry for help, and finally, with one despairing shriek, throw up his hands and sink. With the cry of her husband ringing in her ears, Mrs. Johnson awoke and ran screaming to her mother. Her husband had started out early in a power boat for Gloucester. Early yesterday morning the power boat was found wrecked on the north shore, about twenty five miles below Beachmont. With ordinary speed the boat would have reached there about midnight. The body was picked up at noon, and the medical examiner said he had been dead about twelve hours.

Royal Wedding.

Berlin, Oct. 22.—Amid all the glitter and pomp of the German Imperial court, Prince August Wilhelm, fourth son of Emperor William, was married in the chapel of the palace to Princess Alexandra Victoria of Schleswig-Holstein at five o'clock this evening. The ceremony itself was simple, the ritual of the Lutheran state church being used. Preceding the religious ceremony, a civil ceremony was held in a private apartment of the palace. The bride was dressed in white silk, timmed with lace, and her train of thirteen feet was carried by four pages. After the ceremony the empress placed the Hohenzollern crown upon the head of the young princess. A reception was held at the White Hall.

Under Martial Law.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 22.—The whole Reel Foot Lake section, the scene of the murder of Quentin Rankin by night riders, is under martial law. Troops are searching every house for masks, arms and other evidence of participation in the crime. Important clews leading to the implication of some of the band have been furnished by Col. Taylor, who escaped a death like Rankins by leaping into the river. A special court has been convened at Union City to try all offenders and suspects arrested.

Letter to the Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Co.

Alexandria, Va.

Dear Sirs: People ask how many square feet a gallon will cover. Depends on condition of building.

There is a great deal of lying on this point. The stock claim of lying paints is 300 square feet, two coats. It's a lie, as a rule.

Devoe covers 300 to 500, our agents think. We think 300 too low and 500 too high; though doubtless, they both occur.

How much the other paints cover is equally doubtful; we guess 100 to 400.

The truth is found in another comparison. Devoe is all paint, true paint, strong paint, and full-measure; the others in general are, at the best, diluted, adulterated and short-measure. They cover according to body and measure. You can't paint with clay lime chalk sand barytes water or air—no body in them. Go by Devoe.

Yours truly,
F W DEVOE & Co.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS.

The morning session at Charlottesville yesterday of the Grand Camp, Confederate Veterans of Virginia, was a busy one. Much time was devoted to reading and adopting resolutions having to do with the welfare of the organization. Many matters of interest came up and were discussed by distinguished veterans.

A pleasing incident was the introduction by the Grand Commander of Gen. Newton M. Curtis, of New York, who was in command at Lynchburg during the time immediately succeeding the close of the civil war. General Curtis recounted his experience while in command at Lynchburg in the reconstruction era and thanked General Munford for his words of commendation of his course during that trying time. If he could have had his way, he said, there would have been no era of reconstruction.

Following the election of officers for the Grand Camp the meeting of the Virginia Division of Confederate Veterans was called.

Commander Major General Saith Bolling of Petersburg read his annual report showing the present roll to be over 4,000.

In the morning the sponsors and maids of honor of the Grand Camp and Sons of Veterans were taken on a tally-ho ride to Monticello, in charge of the R. T. W. Duke Camp, Sons of Veterans, of Charlottesville.

In the afternoon a visit was paid to the University of Virginia. President Alderman welcomed them with a speech characteristically appropriate. Judge W. W. Old, of Norfolk, spoke on "students of the University of Virginia who entered the service of the Confederate States during the war and the services rendered by them."

Officers were elected as follows: Grand commander, Col. S. S. Brooke, of Roanoke; first lieutenant-commander, John C. Ewell, of Bertrand; second lieutenant commander, William C. Whittle, of Norfolk; third lieutenant-commander, Capt. Micajah Woods, of Charlottesville; inspector-general, Tipton D. Jennings, of Lynchburg; quartermaster-general, A. Brown, jr., of Richmend; chaplain-general, Rev. John P. Hyde, of Winchester surgeon-general, Dr. Herbert M. Nash of Norfolk; adjutant-general, Joseph V. Bidgood of Richmond.

In the Grand Camp of United Sons, Mrs. A. J. Montague, of Richmond, made a strong appeal for support for the Home of Needy Confederate Women located in Richmond. The Grand Camp unanimously resolved that each chapter throughout the state endeavor to raise each year a stated sum for the home.

James Mann, chairman of the women's memorial committee of the United Sons of Confederate Veterans, which has charge of the work of erecting a memorial to the women of the Confederacy, reported that the work has progressed so far that success is assured.

At 8 o'clock last night the Veterans, Sons of Veterans, sponsors, and maids of honor attended an entertainment given in Cabell hall, at the university, by Pork Miller.

Today there was a grand parade with Col. R. P. Chew, of Charlestown, W. V., as chief marshal.

Jr. O. U. A. M.

The State Council, Junior Order United American Mechanics, in session at Lynchburg yesterday afternoon, adopted resolutions calling for free text-books in the public schools and authorizing the legislative committee to take steps to bring the matter before the next legislature. The next session will be held at Manchester.

The new officers are: Councilor, L. R. Smith, of Richmond; vice councilor, J. W. Camper, of Roanoke; warden, R. M. Fox, of Danville; treasurer, McD. Landrum, of Lynchburg; inside sentinel, F. H. Walker, of Richmond; outside sentinel, J. C. Bailey, of Accomac; trustees, S. Huff, of Roanoke; J. O. Wiggs, of Berkley, and A. L. Sampson, of Manchester.

The secretary was elected last year for a term of two years, hence no election yesterday. The council adjourned yesterday evening.

THE DOCTORS.

That cancer is contagious, that wrong diagonoses of diseases frequently are made, thereby retarding recovery of the patient, or resulting in sending him to the grave, and that a multitude of diseases are covered by the term hysteria, were brought out yesterday in the convention of the Virginia Medical Society, in session at the Jefferson Hotel, auditorium, in Richmond.

Following up the slogan sounded in his annual address by President Drewry, a resolution was introduced by Drs. Ribble, Hansberger, Truman A. Parker, S. T. A. Kent and William Anderson, outlining the campaign to be waged against tuberculosis in Virginia.

One of the most interesting papers read during the day was that of Dr. Beverly R. Tucker, who declared that the frequency with which other conditions are diagnosed as hysteria is well known to the medical profession, hysteria being mistaken often for organic and other diseases.

BISHOP RANDOLPH.

The silver jubilee of Bishop Alfred McGill Randolph, of the Episcopal diocese of Southern Virginia, was observed in Norfolk yesterday. The opening ceremonies were held in the forenoon in St Paul's Church with communion and an address by Bishop B. D. Tucker, of Lynchburg, coadjutor of Southern Virginia. Last evening ceremonies were held at Christ Church parish-house, with the presentation to the bishop of a magnificent silver bowl and loving cup.

ALEXANDRIAS WIN.

The A. A. C. football team defeated the strong Department of Agriculture football team by the score of 10 to 0. Priest and Spray for the losers played a good game, while the A. A. C. played a strong defensive game, always having the ball near the goal line. After seven minutes of play full back Cockrell was shoved over for the first touchdown, and in the second half two long runs and heavy line bucking put the ball over for the second touchdown. The front line of the A. A. C. gave another brilliant exhibition and helped the backs on for many gains. Saturday the A. A. C. will play the G. A. C. in this city.

CHARGE DISMISSED.

Among the cases before the Police Court this morning was that of Thomas Carter, foreman in the street department, who was charged by Charles Baltimore, colored, now serving a term on the chaingang, with assaulting him with a pistol. The evidence showed that Baltimore had entered a saloon and upon emerging there-from engaged in an angry colloquy with Peyton Wright, colored, who was in charge of a wagon pausing at the time. Carter attempted to put a stop to the row, when Baltimore became defiant and was joined by several other negroes who are also members of the chaingang. Their conduct having become menacing, Carter drew his pistol and ordered the prisoners to stand back. Justice Caton dismissed the charge.

The habitual consumption of more food than is necessary for these purposes is the prime cause of stomach troubles, rheumatism and disorders of the kidneys. If troubled with indigestion, revise your diet, let reason and not appetite control and take a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will soon be all right again. VACCINATION CHALLENGE.

An unusual challenge to test the effectiveness of vaccination was issued at the opening meeting of the National Anti-Vaccination Conference, in Philadelphia, on Monday, with representatives present from state and national organizations opposed to compulsory vaccination and other compulsory medical practices.

Dr. Rudolph Straube, of Philadelphia, in an address challeged Dr. Samuel Dixon, head of the Pennsylvania Health Department, to spend a night in bed with him with a smallpox patient between them in order to prove his assertion that vaccination is of no benefit in preventing the spread of that disease. Dr. Dixon, Dr. Straube says, has been vaccinated several times, while he has never been innoculated. In the event of Dr. Dixon's refusal to accept the offer, Dr. Straube said the challenge would be open to Dr. Joseph Neff, of the Health Department of Philadelphia.

When Dr. Dixon's attention was called to the challenge at the State Health Department Tuesday he said he declined to discuss the matter, and his manner indicated that he will pay no attention to Dr. Straube. This sleeping match is off. Dr. Straube may now turn his attention to Dr. Neff.

SON KILLS FATHER.

Because his sister Annie had sworn to a warrant accusing their father, Asbury Hatfield, James Hatfield waited until the return of the old man from town and shot him dead in the stable in the rear of the Hatfield home, near Elizabethtown, Ky. It was not known by the boy on what charge his father had been arrested until after the officers had taken him to the county seat, when he learned from his sister's lips that she had caused his arrest because of her father's actions. Her brother swore to be avenged. Hatfield, sr., was released on bail. Later his body was found in the barn, with a bullet hole through his head. The boy has not yet been arrested, and it is said neighbors will secure bail for him and testify in his behalf at the trial. The alleged revolting crime of the elder Hatfield aroused the entire country when it became known, and the deed of the son has found praise from the same citizenship.

A Defect.

A little girl was playing with a girl friend of her own age on the porch of her home. An elderly gentleman, her mother's father, and an elderly lady, her father's mother, were sitting on the porch talking pleasantly with each other. The little girl had often wished her grandparents were of the same name, like other children's grandparents. Presently the little guest remarked, "What a nice grandmother and grandfather you have!"

"Oh, yes," she said, with a sigh, "but they don't match."

An Explanation.

"How long has this restaurant been open?" asked the would be diner.

"Two years," said the proprietor.

"I am sorry I did not know it," said the guest. "I should be better off if I had come here then."

"Yes?" smiled the proprietor, very much pleased. "How is that?"

"I should probably have been served by this time if I had," said the guest, and the entente cordiale vanished.—Harper's Weekly.

Cause and Effect.

Old Hunks—When I came to this town sixteen years ago, real estate in the block where I live was higher than it is now.

Old Hewligus—It would be so in any block where you'd settle down.—Chicago Tribune.

Mr. Smith (in street car)—Madam, take my seat. Mrs. Jones (who has been standing fifteen minutes)—No, thanks; I get off at the next corner. Smith—That's all right. So do I.

It is unpleasant to turn back, even though it be to take the right way.—German Proverb.
